STRONG ADJECTIVES

Go to My English pages and read the theory. You will find an activity at the bottom of the page

ON/IN TIME

In time = before you are late, with spare time

On time= punctual, specific time

Activity:

AT THE END/ IN THE END

"At the end" is mainly physical or spatial-- at the end of the page, at the end of the road (although one can also say at the end of the day).

"In the end" means finally, eventually. In the end, after hours of discussion, we decided to compromise.

INFINITIVE OF PURPOSE

* She went there for buying bread" is incorrect. Learn about the use of "to" and "for" for purposes

To talk about the purpose of something we use for "to" "This knife is for cutting bread". "For" is also used to explain the reason of actions. "He was fined for speeding on the motorway"

To talk about the purpose of an action: "She went there for buying bread"
